

Word work spelling

Suffixes tion, sion, ssion and cian

Flip this sheet over and ask someone to test you.

cover me

1st Try

2nd Try

objection from object

infection from infect

acceleration from accelerate

possession from possess

permission from permit

division from divide

intention from intend suspension from suspend

politician from politics

optician from optic

Nouns based on words that end in -ss or -mit always end in sion ...

... If the noun is related to a word ending in -ate, then the ending will be ation.

A

Make changes to these words to make a sentence that makes sense:

The accelerate _____ of this car is impressive.

It is my intend _____ to stop eating so many sweets.

My brother wants to be a politics _____ when he's older.

B

Use three words from the list, including them in three short sentences.

This week's words

objection infection acceleration possession permission division intention suspension politician optician

You could try these too

installation concentration conversion explosion electrician