

Flip this sheet over and ask someone to test you.

cover me

1st Try

2nd Try

nervous from nerve miraculous from miracle

scrupulous from scruple

glorious from glory

envious from envy

rigorous from rigour

grievous from grief

mischievous from mischief

monstrous from monster

disastrous from disaster

These words with the suffix -ous are all adjectives ...

... Words like these are great for adding description to your writing.

A

'Mysterious' is an adjective made from a noun by dropping the final y before adding ious. Find words from your list that follow the same rule:

.....

B

Spot which of these words are misspelt, correct them and re-write them beneath:

disasterous

rigourous

miraclious

mischeifous

.....

.....

.....

.....

This week's words

nervous miraculous scrupulous glorious envious rigorous grievous mischievous monstrous disastrous

You could try these too

thunderous luxurious victorious rapturous wondrous

