

Word work spelling

Making adjectives and adverbs with -ible and -ibly

Flip this sheet over and ask someone to test you.

cover me

1st Try

2nd Try

visible visibly horrible
horribly terrible terribly
possible possibly incredible incredibly

The words in the list ending -ible are adjectives.

The words in the list ending -ibly are adverbs.

A

Use three words from the list, including them in three short sentences:

.....

.....

.....

B

Find the word from the spelling list that fits each of these definitions:

- means difficult or impossible to believe.
- means able to be seen.
- means causing fear, terror or horror.
- means maybe; perhaps.

This week's words

visible visibly horrible horribly terrible terribly possible possibly incredible incredibly

You could try these too

responsible irresponsibly illegible invincible flexibly